To the three republican members:

You have no right to hi-jack the airways of the citizens of this ${\tt United}$ States. This vote will allow the giants of the news outlets to control what Americans will be told and sway what we should think. This has already happened as the TV giants have quietly allowed you to get to this point.

To the two democrats: Where was your voice? Was it already stifled by the large news conglomerates?

The fact the CNN World News Tonight with Mr. Brown only presented this issue $\,$

on Friday NIGHT, with the weekend in view, that gave the public no time to $% \left(1\right) =\left(1\right) +\left(1\right)$ respond, suggests that we already have managed news.
